

I Want To Go Out With Your Mother

Who's that standing by the kitchen window.....
Who's the one who has the permanent smile?
Who's that lady radiating beauty?
Can I come in for a while.....can I come in for a while?

Well I know she's too old to be your sister
Give me a hint..... please won't you tell me her name
But she looks like you, could it be true that you family ties are the same?
Your family ties are the same.....your family ties are the same

I've been watching her for nearly a week now
I wonder if she's seen me hangin' about
I hope she doesn't think I've got a cheek now
If I were to ask her out.....If I were to ask her out

Well, I know she's a really high class lady
I can tell by the way she folds her sheets
Tomorrow I'm gonna grab a broom, I'm gonna sweep her off her feet
I'm gonna sweep her off her feet.....I'm gonna sweep her off
her feet

I want to go out with your mother.....I want to go out with your mum
I want to go out with your mother but don't tell your dad
what I've done
Don't tell your dad what I've done.....don't tell your dad what
I've done!

I love the way she scrubs and polishes the floor
I bet her dishes never looked so clean before Domestic duties are what I want to explore
I wish she'd notice me 'cause I want her more and more, well

I want to go out with your mother.....I want to go out with
your mum

I want to go out with your mother but don't tell your dad
what I've done

Don't tell your dad what I've done.....don't tell your dad what I've done!
